

Membership Policy

A person is considered an active member of Aquarian Clinic, Inc. when:

Member has paid the registration fee.
Member has signed the terms and conditions and has registration forms.
Member has made the initial office appointment.
Member has signed the practice agreement and paid the first month's subscription.

Member's consent to the above is considered implied when they chose to attend the appointment and services are received. It is the responsibility of the member to read and complete all registration forms.

Who can be a member?

An employee
An employer
A single person
A family unit

A family unit is defined as members of a single household who are under direct care of the head of that household.

A family unit includes:

Head of household
Spouse/Partner
Children, biological or those under the guardianship of the head of household and/or spouse.
Children away at college/other school who are still considered members of the household unit.

Family unit (unless otherwise agreed to by the practice) does not include:

Grandparents or parents of the head of household.
Non-family members living with the family.
Family members living at another residence.